TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St.

Louis, "the future great City of the world."

This line, the

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAIL-

WAY,

has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running

Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping

Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to C. S. BAN-

NETT, Southern Passenger Agent, Postoffice Box 243, Chattanooga, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

The South and Slavery.

Hon. Ben. H. Hill, of Georgia, in his recent address before the Southern Historical Society, errs most egregiously, when he says that there was not a day during the war when the Southern people would not have surrendered slavery to secure independence. The struggle itself was for slavery, not for any real or supposed misgovernment which existed under the Union. A fear was entertained that slavery was threatened if the States in which it survived remained in the Union, and they resolved to cast loose from the danger and form a commonwealth in which slavery was the foundation. The only independence involved in the conflict was the right to hold human beings in bondage, independent of any laws, present or prospective, to the contrary.

We all remember the project which was begun but a few months before General Lee's surrender, of arming the negroes to fight in behalf of slavery. Unless our recollection is in fault, the act of the Congress of the expiring Confederacy, which authorized the enrollment of the colored people, made no promise to them of their ultimate freedom, for the services which they were expected to render. They were supposed to be willing to fight, that they and their children to the latest generation, might have the glorious privilege of serving the wants of another race.

The surrender of slavery would have been the surrender of everything for which the contest was entered into. To save the periled institution the owners made sacrifices, which, had they been made in a better cause, would have been worthy of undying fame. The ministers of pagan religions laid jewels of inestimable value upon the altars of their ignoble divinities; human blood was shed in their senseless worship, but never did Pope or pagan make a more costly or splendid sacrifice to an unworthy object than did the South make to slavery.

It is true that long previous to the war, a difference existed between the North and South as to the power of the United States under the Constitution. But they did not go to war for an abstraction; nor rather the Southern States did not invite the war by seceding on account of this difference of construction. It was to settle the vexed question of slavery forever, by establishing a government in which it was recognized and admitted, that the war was fought.

Another imposter. Roger Orton is not the only "claimant" who has lately come to grief. The Paris Court of Appeals, on the 27th of February, gave judgment in the case of Naundorff against the Count de Cambord. This was nothing less than an attempt to impose upon the Faubourg St. Germain and the Legation of France, the children of a German shopkeeper as the heirs of Louis the Sixteenth. It was pretended that the Dauphin, the son of Louis XVI, instead of dying in the prison of Le Temple in 1795, escaped by a twofold substitution, settled in Germany, and under the name of Naundorff, married and deid, leaving children, who are the pretenders.

The evidence in this singular claim was mainly documentary, as the most important part of it referred to transactions which took place nearly eighty years ago. The Court took the record of the death of the Dauphin while under the charge of the shoemaker, Simon, and wife as conclusive upon the point.

The Kolnische Zeitung informs its readers that there is at the present time exhibited for sale in the shop of the jeweler Badt, at Berlin, a magnificent ring labelled "pawnee by Archbishop Ledochowski." This announcement, of course, attracting considerable attention, and whether true or false, the ring itself appears worthy of the character claimed for it as a genuine annulus episcopalis, sent by the Pope to the Primate. It bears a splendid amethyst, the typical stone of hierarchical consecration, on which a Christ on the cross is exquisitely carved, while the hoop and settings are of gold, curiously and richly enabled. It is offered for sale for 1,000 marks.

The Wallace Sisters drive good houses in Raleigh.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

An Iowa legislator has written to the Lieutenant Governor of his State: "Dear sir please tell me what sinner are the comity to visit the orfin asslum at glenwood."

The workmen in the English dockyards are already beginning to feel the advantages of the change of Government. A new order has been issued under which in future all men who are compelled to leave the service through accident or illness will be provided for by a special allowance.

Gov. Jacob of Kentucky, unites with Ex-Governor Bramlette, in condemning the nomination of Capt. Jones by the Democrats merely because he served on the rebel side during the war. The nomination meets with general opposition from the original Union men in the State, and the Louisville Commercial believes that, by proper effort, he can be defeated.

The London Times has completed a careful review of the census of 1871 of the British Empire. There are 38 persons to a square mile in the Empire; 260 in the United Kingdom; 201 in India, and 141 in the colonies. It should be observed, however, that in some parts of India the density of population more than equals that of England. The Queen rules over 234,762,598 souls; her people dwell in 44,142,651 houses; the area of the lands they inhabit is not less than 7,760,449 square miles.

It appears to be no easy matter to get married in Switzerland. A citizen of Schaffhausen, who had removed to another canton, asked from his commune the necessary permission to marry. The President of the commune, in reply, told him that in addition to payment for the needful documents he would have to provide for the rights of bourgeoisie if his fiancée was a Swiss, 20 francs if a foreigner. The man was told, moreover, that he would have to provide by certificate that he was provided with a wedding outfit and a fortune of 800 francs. He would be required to pay in addition 23 francs to the school fund, 20 francs for the military tax for 1873, and finally 36 florins 12 kreutzers for expenses incurred by his commune when he was ill in Germany. The claims thus amounted to 233 francs 40 centimes, irrespective of all other expenses of permissions, translations, stamps, and the cost of documents. The man was totally unable to meet such a claim, and representations to this effect were made to the council of his commune by a society for encouraging marriage, but their efforts are useless.

The Asheville and Charlotte papers are discussing the probabilities of an earthquake in McDowell county and a threatened volcanic eruption from Bald Mountain, located in the Fair View end of McDowell county, in the Bend of Broad river, and just opposite Chimney Rock. The people of that section are becoming much alarmed about a rumbling noise that has been heard daily for some two months, proceeding from this mountain, houses being jarred for miles in every direction. The Asheville Expositor publishes letters from reliable parties in the vicinity of the disturbed mountain, who each give the same report in substance, and the inhabitants of that section are preparing to leave from fear.

We met, a couple of days since, the Editor of the Expositor and he assured us, upon the strength of the assertion of gentlemen from the vicinity of the disturbance, whose word he could not doubt, that no doubt exhibited of the fact that the mountain was in terrible throes from some cause, the rumbling noise and the attendant quaking of the earth being anything but pleasant, while there are positive indications that the mountain is on fire. The recent snows have melted as rapidly as it fell upon the mountain. Would it not be well for some scientist to look into this matter, as a correspondent writing from there says: "The people are going to leave if it is not stopped."

The Charlotte Observer, of yesterday, says of the locality of the mountain: "The exact locality is not stated though it lies in the wild, mountainous region where McDowell, Buncombe and Henderson counties come together, in the neighborhood of Chimney Rock, and almost on a direct line between Rutherfordton and Asheville, and about equi-distant from either place. There are many Bald Mountains in Western North Carolina, but the Bald Mountain which is frightening some of our bold mountaineers, with its deep, frightful growlings, rears its ragged front along the Southern border of McDowell county, and where McDowell, Henderson, Buncombe and Rutherford come together."—News.

Judge Thomas has introduced a bill in Congress to remove the obstructions in Neuse river.

MESSINA LEMONS, AT
JAN 3 GEO. MYERS,

Prospectus for 1874-Seventyfourth year
THE ALDINE

An Illustrated Monthly journal, universally admitted to be Handsome, Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or Music Stores

THE ALDINE while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary uncertainty characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the most specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. For other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874.

The illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world-wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more generous public taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality with greater facility of production. The woodcuts of THE ALDINE possess all the suc-cinctness and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce the works of the great foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscribers to THE ALDINE will be enriched by the works of the great masters of art, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The pictures of the year 1874 will be selected with a view to the highest artistic
success and greatest general interest. Thus
the subscribers to THE ALDINE will be enriched by the works of the great masters of
art, at a trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the
pleasure and refining influences of true art.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will possess in attraction any of its predecessors.

PREMIUM FOR 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos.
The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by the Government for $10,000.
The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in the White Mountains, New Hampshire, the other gives the Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes is strikingly apparent in contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size 12 1/2 by 16 1/2 inches, and represent actual fac-similes of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's artistic talent, and the successful realization is attested by the following testimonial over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

"NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20th, 1873.
MESSRS. JAMES SUTTON & Co., Publishers, New York City.

Gentlemen,—I am delighted with the prompt color of your chromos. They wonderfully successful representation by mechanical process of the original paintings.
Very respectfully,
THOMAS MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American, they are by original American process, with material of American manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American painter, and presented to our subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire, and will be treasured all the more if by reason of peculiar factories of production they cost the publishers little, while equal in every respect to the other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription price of THE ALDINE.

For the sake of the public, and for the benefit of the artist, the publishers have themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprising and successful result of the chromo process. If subscribers should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 12 1/2 by 16 1/2 inches, representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

For 50 Cents Extra, the chromos will be sent, mounted, varnished, and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or under the local canvasser, and no responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation, but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows.

It is a first rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, interesting, and instructive manner.

It is a first rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first rate agricultural paper. The most valuable and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no color.
It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knives, and asks no favors from their supporters.

It reports the speeches for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published.
One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty six columns. Only $1.00 a year. No discount from this rule.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.—Same size as the Daily Sun, $2.00 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price, 10 cents a month, or $1.00 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent. Address,
